Mr. Meitzenbaum: I don't know whether I would support that as such. I think I would be prepared to support an idea of bringing in the military leaders, Creighton Abrams or Westmoreland, and finding out from them how soon we can get out without losing the lives of those left behind.

Mr. Metzenbaum: I think that's his own brand of McCarthyism. I previously have stated publicly that I think it's a rather dangerous kind of thing that he's doing. I would criticize him strongly for doing it.

Mr. Metzzenbaum: No, I do not support it. I think that it would be a retrogressive step.

Mr. Metzenbaum: At one point he talked about debating with Taft and Rhodes. He wanted in on that debate and that apparently indicates that he doesn't understand the political process. He and I are running in a Democratic primary and they're running in a Republican primary.

THERE IS NO need to apologize for attaining academic excellence. The criteria for recognition, an arbitrary 4.5 average, is valid because applied equally to all candidates. The meaning of grades is a highly subjective question beyond the scope of this commentary, but a key is meaningful to some.

States "ought to withdraw as quickly as possible the combatant forces" from Vietnam. He agreed "in principle with Senator Goodell's withdrawal plan but proposed that a residual force of 150,000 support troops stay for a transitional period to avoid the outright abandonment of some American military installations.

Forty students from the senior A. P. American History and Urban Problems classes left school Wednesday afternoon, February 18 for a three-day trip to Washington, D. C. Teachers Jerry Graham, Mrs Margaret Jones, Baird Wiehe, and parent Mrs. Dovie Adams went as chaperons.

URBAN PROBLEMS students went to have group discussions with various federal officials. They met with public figures like Congressmen Charles Vanik and Louis Stokes, and Clarence Mitchell, NAACP National Legislative Director.

The American-History students attended a few of these discussions; sight-seeing, however, was their primary activity. They observed Congressional Debates and committee hearings, and visited Washington landmarks either in groups or individually during their free time.

SATURDAY, ALL forty students visited Reston, Virginia, a town just outside of Washington, D. C. This town is one out of about five "new towns" in the country, and senior Laurie Helled claims, it "is like a resort in the Catskills."

Dr. Sidney Peck, professor of sociology at Case Western Reserve University, said, concerning the Chicago-7 defendants, the courtroom tactics were justifiable because Judge Hoffmann created a "circus atmosphere."

PECK STRONGLY believes that "the best way to end the Vietnam war is to end it. The military strategy is based on the destruction of people." About student deferments, Peck said, "I'm for anybody not having to serve in a compulsory way for the military. The silent majority is a part of political mythology of the Nixon administration. Ninety-five per cent of the American people want this war to end. They are not agreed in how it should be ended."

Peck said that the territory from the 1967 Israeli War "has to go back before there is any kind of possibility of solution with the Arab people. Israel's survival hangs together with the ability to break with the Western and European powers.

Grapplers Garner Sectional; Seven Merit District Berth

The Shaker wrestling team closed out the season with two losses and one win as the grapplers defeated Parma, but lost to Valley Forge and Heights. The team's final record was 6-6-1 and their final LEL mark stood at 3-5-1. The Raiders came to life, however, in tournament action as they won the Garfield sectional.

AT THE conclusion of the dual meets heavyweight Tim Karpoff was the only Raider to remain undefeated as he finished the year with a record of 12-0-1. Two other members of the team, Dave Kirschenbaum (107) and Lester Brooks (185) met defeat only once, while Blair Taliaferro (175) finished with an 11-2 slate.

At the Garfield sectional Shaker moved ahead on the second day to emerge as the team winner with 77 points. The Raiders had four individual champions in Kirschenbaum,

Taliaferro, Brooks, and Karpoff. Kirschenbaum and Karpoff each registered two pins. Co-captain Brooks engineered three in winning his title. The remainder of Shaker's points were supplied by Bob Gross (115), co-captain Steve Wolkin (123), and Mike Golub (130). Gross took a second, Wolkin a third, and Golub a fourth. All seven of these wrestlers will advance to the district tournament held at Cuyahoga Community College.

Stilson, Relays Aim at State; Mermen Gain Fourth in LEL

Shaker's swim team ended its regular season against Heights, Midpark, and Lakewood before going on the L.E.L. and District meets. Shaker lost to Heights, 63-32, where the old 100-yard backstroke record of 59.5 fell to Dave Stilson with the time of 58.5. Then the tankers went on to upset heavily favored Midpark, 51-44. Mike Hutton, Jim Wolen, the 200-yard medley relay team and the 400-yard free-style relay team gave outstanding performances. However, the mermen lost their last meet to Lakewood, 58-37.

SHAKER THEN placed fourth in the L.E.L. meet. The 200-yard medley relay team of Dave Stilson, Dave Litman, Pete Havens, and Jim Kuhn won, while the 400-yard freestyle relay team placed second. Notable individual performances from Kuhn, Havens, Stilson, and Wolen were contributed also. Dave Stilson, the 200-yard medley and the 400-yard free-style relays teams qualified for state competition as Shaker finished eighth at Districts.

Raiders Cage Arch-Rival Tigers; Finish at 7-12

Shaker's basketball team finished its season with losses to Valley Forge and Lakewood, but topped arch rival Heights, 65-53. Shaker also lost to John Adams in the Bedford Sectional, 65-61.

AGAINST FORGE, the Raiders played well in the first half and trailed by only two, 30-28, at halftime. Forge broke loose in the second half, though, and went on to win, 75-49.

Again Heights, the first half was close, as the Tigers led, 31-29 at halftime. In the second half, Shaker led by as many as twelve before Heights rallied to tie at 57-57. The Tigers tried to play for a last shot, but never got it off against Shaker's harassing defense.

IN THE overtime period Shaker controlled both boards, and continually got second and third shots. Shaker outscored Heights 8-1 in the overtime, to cap the victory. Tony Manning and Steve Sanna, the game's high scorers, each meshed 21 points.

Tony Manning led Shaker to a 19-15 first quarter lead against Lakewood, but Shaker collapsed, and Lakewood continued to a 65-52 victory.

AGAINST ADAMS, Shaker led 31-26 at halftime, but Adams fought back to edge Shaker.

Coach Fred Heinlen is pleased with this season's final overall 7-12 record, a big improvement over last year's dismal 4-15. "I have no complaints," he says. "This was a good group of kids to work with."

Swatters, Cindermen Commence Workouts

Shaker's baseball and track teams have begun to practice for the regular outdoor season. The former has eight returning lettermen and is captained by Greg Golenberg and Ed Rose. Jim and Jeff Kramer, distance aces, captain the track team.
